Conflict Minerals & Conflict Mining Statement

“Conflict Materials” and “Conflict Mining” refer to the illegal extraction & control of minerals from within the DRC (Democratic Republic Of Congo). We are aware that we do use some of the materials listed below.

K T Assemblies is aware of the complexity of the supply chain when sourcing our materials and will continue to ensure that our suppliers are striving to ensure that their supply chain does not contain any ”Conflict Minerals”.

We will continue to work with our suppliers and monitor the situation as best we can.

At this time we are happy that the materials we are using in our products are not obtained from conflict sources within the DRO according to the information acquired from our suppliers.

Materials In Question Are As Follows.

- Cobalt (Co)
- Gold (Au)
- Tin (Sn)
- Tungsten (W)
- Tantalum (Ta)

K T Assemblies is committed to supplying our customers with products of the highest quality while maintaining awareness of these “Conflict Materials”.
